Speeded up the Factory

A BIRMINGHAM Selling House received a rush order for machinery.

The sales manager called the factory at Pittsburg on the telephone, and was assured that the order would be shipped as desired.

Long Distance Bell Telephone service is an essential link between the selling house and the factory.

Mrs. T. L. Roper Dies.

Mrs. Elizabeth Roper passed away at her home on South Eighth street about three o'clock yesterday afternoon after an illness of several weeks duration.

Mrs. Roper, who was 63 years of age, was the widow of the late Thomas L. Roper. She was a consistent member of the First Methodist church and was a charitable and noble Christian woman. She was always at the bedside of her friends in case of their sickness and was liked by all who knew her. She is survived by two daughters, Mesdames Lizzie McKeough and Annie May White, and one son, Mr. J. A. Roper, all of whom have the sympathy of numerous friends in their bereavement.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock from the family residence, 325 South Eighth street, and interment will take place at Friendship cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Edwards left Tuesday for Albany, Ga., where they go to make their future home.

For some time past Mr. Edwards has been in the cigar manufacturing business, and during his stay here has made many friends, who regret that he has decided to locate in Georgia.

Former Columbian Dies.

The remains of Mr. John E. Cooke, a former Columbian, who died at his home in Marietta, Ala., last Saturday, were brought here Sunday evening for interment, and the funeral services were held at Friendship cemetery Monday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. L. McCullon, pastor of the Baptist church at Oakland Ala., and Rev. J. L. Vipperman, pastor of the First Baptist church in this city.

Mr. Cooke was 79 years of age and resided here quite a number of years ago. From Columbus he went to Marietta, where he invested in mining property. Besides a devoted wife he is survived by three children.

The following local citizens acted as pall bearers: Messrs. E. B. Morris, Joe Harris, J. A. Lipsey, J. T. Sanford, H. H. Gunter, J. T. Searcy, Arthur Stansel and J. T. Wood.
